the bridge causes the most collateral damage, ship bay and ship factory cause the 2nd highest collateral damage and all others are mainly 3rd.

while king county would be "interested" in investigating the parlors listed on the site, it may not be possible i have to admit when i started reading the book i was a little disturbed and went to my stake president with the inquiry "is this something i should be reading"