many of these immigrants fled from war-torn countries, political persecution, and economic difficulties.

the same effect was observed for plasmatic levels of coq and il-1, and partially also for -glutamyltransferase activity assessed in joints and spleen.