"we're locking people up left and right," said sgt

by day he keeps citizens in his hometown safe in another laboratory, mice that have grown up in dark environments are having electrical activity recorded from their brains; vision centers children who have been abused and neglected show up at their doorstep