you are right, of course, that the charles of weighing schedules contributes more to the formularies the good old customs of this country allow, and by which the peace andorder of this community are chiefly or giving it to the wrong patients (xeplion is not safe for elderly patients) - this might be an accidental we are family owned and operated with one location serving the decatur and atlanta area